

Are you getting married? Or have a loved one who is?

Getting married is an exciting time, but sometimes preparations for the wedding can override preparations for the marriage!

Honni Hayton Counselling's Marriage Preparation Course is designed to give couples time to focus on each other, discussing their relationship and envisioning an exciting future together.

During the six-week course couples will discuss a range of topics in a relaxed and personalised way. Whether this is the first or third marriage, this course really is an investment in the relationship.

Topics include:

- Your Story: Who you are as a couple*
- Keeping your relationship healthy*
- Making the most of your differences*
- How to best love your partner*
- Keeping the passion alive in your relationship*
- Envisioning an exciting future together*

And if you are already married and would like to do the course, it can be personalised to your situation too!

Couples can complete the course in person or online.
